My tutor helps me focus on exactly what I need. Her dedication inspires me and motivates me to do homework, work hard and be ready for our meetings.

BoulderReads Learner

Working with my student is a highlight. It was great when she told me how what we were doing in our sessions helped her in her life, and when I got to witness that first hand-like when she voted for the first time.

Hi Joni,

Here is the scoop on library funding education efforts:

1. We are working on getting the initial landing page “Funding Our Library Future” up later this week, and will add the This American Life podcast episode to the list of links.
2. Communications is refining the FAQ and it will be linked to on the landing page
3. Alyssa is working in a “Funding Our Library Future” graphic to tie together the landing page, FB posts and newsletter articles.
4. I will investigate library testimonial editing possibilities and reach out to Brenda Ritenour and Ryan Hanchion about messaging avenues available through the city’s community engagement team.

Thank you and have a great week,

Aspen
