

Boulder Public Library Card Kids' Art Design Contest

Boulder Public Library is holding an art contest for the design of three new library cards around the 2020 Summer of Discovery Program theme: Our Connected Stories. Show us your best storytelling designs or highlight the many connections you see in our world! Three winners, one in each age group, will be selected in April. Only one submission per person, please. Entries accepted: March 1 – ~~31, 2020~~ extended deadline of Friday, April 17.

Contest Guidelines

Children up to age 14, living in Boulder County, may participate in this art contest. Three winning designs will be selected, one in each of these age groups: 5 & under; 6-8 years old; and 9-14 years old.

Entries may be dropped off at any Boulder Public Library Location. Art submissions will be accepted in digital media, fine art (acrylics, drawings, oils, prints, or watercolors) and photography. No film, video, animation or crafts will be accepted. For questions, please contact Anne Ledford at ledforda@boulderlibrary.org Submit online at boulderlibrary.org/art-contest/

Terms and Conditions

By signing the box below, I agree to the following terms: I confirm that all the content is my child's own artwork and property, and is not subject to copyright or ownership by any other person. I permit the City of Boulder to use the content of this form, including all uploaded images, for the purposes of this library card selection process. This includes reformatting content, but is limited to resizing photographs and adding text content to meet the needs of the library card process. Any further use of the submitted content will be subject to additional approval of the owner of the content.

The box at right is double the size of a library card.

Please submit your artwork in this box or supply it at this measurement ratio of 6.75 x 4.25 inches.

When completed, please turn in this form at one of the Boulder Public Library locations.

Deadline to submit: April 17, 2020
