

BOULDER PUBLIC LIBRARY 2021
SUMMER OF DISCOVERY

June 1 – August 15

Our Connected World

*Character design
by Jessica Wang*

READ

Read a book
that someone you like or admire
recommended to you.

READ

Read an #OwnVoices book, see reading list posted at:
bit.ly/SOD2021OwnVoices

LISTEN OR WATCH

Listen to a diverse artist or group that you have never heard before.

LISTEN OR WATCH

Watch a film by a BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) director.

CREATE

Create a TikTok and post it; use hashtag
#boulderlibrarysummer

CREATE

Create a collage,
write a poem,
or record a song.

CREATE

Create some positive
ripples in the world;
thank a frontline
essential worker.

CREATE

Create a picnic with homemade food.

ENGAGE & CONNECT

Connect with a friend
you have not been in touch with since the pandemic began.

ENGAGE & CONNECT

Engage in climate justice by taking
one concrete action.

ENGAGE & CONNECT

Connect with others
by attending a library
sponsored program like Book Queeries, Anime Club,
Teen Chat, or something else!

ENGAGE & CONNECT

Perform a random act
of kindness then connect
with a friend or family member about it.

Maybe it will inspire them!

ENGAGE & CONNECT

Engage with a librarian and “ask for a book by an author you’d never heard of.”

– Mo Willems

ENGAGE & CONNECT

Engage with your family;
hug someone inside your COVID bubble.

ENGAGE & CONNECT

Engage in a new hobby like knitting, baking, or something else! Share your creations using hashtag #boulderlibrarysummer

ENGAGE & CONNECT

Connect with nature
by going outside for a walk or hike.