MAY • JUNE • JULY
2025

CANYON
THEATER

HELLO!

As we step into the warmer months, I'm pleased to share that the library has planned an engaging summer. Whether you're looking for a quiet place to cool off with a good book, meaningful programs, or hands-on opportunities to explore new skills, we have something for everyone.

I'm especially thrilled to welcome you to this year's Summer of Discovery reading challenge! It's a fun, rewarding way to stay curious and connected through books, activities, and events. We invite readers of all ages to participate and celebrate the joy of reading.

We're also happy to introduce the Electronics Studio at the BLDG 61 Makerspace—an exciting new opportunity to explore circuits, coding, and creative tech projects. Whether you're a beginner or a seasoned tinkerer, we hope you'll come by and make something amazing.

Wishing you a summer full of inspiration, discovery, and connection.

Canyon Theater: A Free Public Venue for Community and Culture

Free to attend, free to use.

The Canyon Theater is a fully equipped, 190-seat venue located at the library, available at no cost to community organizers for events that are free and open to the public.

How It Works:

The theater hosts both library-sponsored programs and community-led events throughout the year. While all events are free, some may require advance registration. Scan this QR code for a full event calendar.

Interested in hosting your own event?

Learn more and check availability at “Reserve the Theater” on our website. Note: Some dates are released for community bookings on a rolling basis, so we encourage you to check the calendar frequently for openings.

Explore the Canyon Theater at an Open House

The Canyon Theater regularly hosts drop-in style open houses. Stop by during a scheduled open house for a guided walkthrough and conversation with our theater staff. It's a great chance to explore the venue, ask questions, and even test your media or equipment if you have an upcoming booking.
